TWO IMPORTANT NEW BOOKS

SOCIAL PROGRAMMES IN THE WEST. (The Barrows Lectures.)
By CHARLES RICHMOND HENDERSON, Head of the Department of Practical Sociology in the University of Chicago.

The Barrows Lectures (1912-13) delivered with so much success in the Far East by Professor Henderson are included in this volume, which is also published in India by the Macmillan Company. The subjects of the lectures are as follows: "Foundations of Social Programmes in Economic Facts and in Social Ideals," "Public and Private Relief of Dependents and Abnormals," "Policy of the Western World in Relation to the Anti-Social," "Public Health, Education, and Morality," "Movements to improve the Economic and Cultural Situation of Wage-Earners," and "Providing for Progress." The author, in his preface, says that "the necessity of selecting elements from the social activities of Europe and America which might have value in the Orient under widely different conditions, compelled a consideration of the materials from a new point of view."

212 pages, 8vo, cloth; postpaid, $1.38.

CHRISTIAN FAITH FOR MEN OF TODAY. By E. ALBERT COOK,
Professor of Systematic Theology in the Congregational College of Canada.

A clear and reasonable interpretation of life from the Christian point of view, and some definite formulation of those beliefs that have proved most effectual in the development of individual character and in the promotion of the welfare of society. Professor Cook believes that Christianity is the religion which best meets the needs of all races and classes. The convenient arrangement of the material in numbered paragraphs, the valuable appendices, and the general systematic treatment of the subject commend the book as a popular text for college men and women, and for adult classes and clubs as well as for general reading.

276 pages, 12mo, cloth; postpaid, $1.35.

PROTESTANTISM AND PROGRESS

A HISTORICAL STUDY OF THE RELATION OF PROTESTANTISM TO THE MODERN WORLD

By ERNST TROELTSCH, Dr. Theol., Phil., Jur.
Professor of Theology in the University of Heidelberg
Translated by W. MONTGOMERY, B.D.

In the Crown Theological Library, 12° . . $1.50 net. By mail, $1.65

A clear and vigorous study of one aspect of this subject, the part which Protestantism has played in the making of the Modern World. He traces this out in connection with the Family, the various departments of Law, Politics, Economics, Social Organization and Social Theory, Science and Art. In all these departments he finds the influence of Protestantism, though often powerful, to be indirect.
